

Excellent management. Operative know-how. Global reputation.

Corvay Consult is the consultancy company of the Corvay-company-group. Corvay, based in Hanover, was founded in 2002 and today comprises consulting, trading and development in the bioeconomy. Corvay Consult advises companies in the biotechnology, pharma and chemical industries. We operate safely on international terrain – always with the necessary sensitivity for the social, economic and scientific context of our customers. Our consulting services range from developing the right product portfolio through sustainable go-to-market strategies to product and service development for user-oriented offers.

Become a part of our success, become part of Corvay.

We are hiring for Corvay Consult GmbH

PROJECT MANAGER / CONSULTANT (m/f/d)

Tasks:

- Supervision of ongoing projects with partners in Europe, India and China in the fields of biotechnology, chemistry, and bio-pharmaceuticals
- Acquisition of new projects
- Advising customers, preparation of research, studies, publications

Requirements:

- Academic degree in biotechnology, chemistry, biochemistry or industrial engineering
- 3 - 5 years of professional experience in companies in bioeconomy, chemistry, in consulting firms or as an investment manager in a fund
- Personality, sense of business, knowledge of the markets
- Business German and English in word and writing
- Experienced in using the common office software programs im Umgang mit den gängigen Office-Softwareprogrammen
- Willingness to travel; open in dealing with international partners in China, India, USA; good communication style

We are pleased to meet you:

Please apply with detailed documents to albrecht.laeufer@corvay.de